

Be thou then my beauty

Thomas Campion

Be thou then my beau- ty nam- ed, Since thy will is to be mine.
But if lof- ty tit- les move thee, Chal- lenge then a sov'- reign's place.
Or if this be not suf- fi- cing, Be thou styl'd my god- dess then;

The music consists of two staves. The top staff is in common time with a treble clef, and the bottom staff is in common time with a bass clef. The lyrics are written below the notes. The vocal line starts on a C-clef note, moves to a G-clef note, and then to an E-clef note. The bass line starts on a C-clef note, moves to a G-clef note, and then to an E-clef note.

For by that am I in- flam- ed, Which on all a- like doth shine.
Say I hon- our when I love thee, Let me call thy kind- ness grace.
I will love thee, sac- ri- fi- cing, In thine hon- our hymns I'll pen.

O- thers may the light ad- mire; I on- ly tru- ly feel the fire.
State and Love things di- verse be, Yet will we teach them to a- gree.
To be thine, what canst thou more? I'll love thee, serve thee, and a- dore.
