

Love me or not

Thomas Campion

5

Love me or not, love her I must, or die.
 All my de-sire, all my de-light should be
 Could I en-chant, and that it law-ful were,

Leave me or not, fol-low her needs must I.
 Her to en-joy, her to u-nite to me.
 Her would I charm soft-ly that none should hear.

O that her grace would my wish'd com-forts give!
 En-vy should cease, her would I love a-lone;
 But love en-forc'd rare-ly yields firm-con-tent,

How rich in her, how hap-py should I live.
 Who loves by looks is sel-dom true to one.
 So would I love that nei-ther should re-pent.
