

Think'st thou to seduce me then? Thomas Campion

Think'st thou to seduce me then Learn to speak se- first, duce me then Skill-ful for- an- give me hide their hooks,
 Ruth, for- give me if I err'd

5

with words that have no mean- ing? Par- rats to woo- ing much per- tain- eth. He that fit baits for ev- 'ry sea- son. But with from hu- man hearts' com- pass- ion When I so can learn to prate, our courts us, want- ing art, soon crook- ed pins fish thou, as laugh- ed ed some- times too much 10

speech by piec- es - glean- ing.
falt- ers when he - feign- eth;
babes do see that thy want - fool- ish rea- fa- son.
to see thy fool- ish fa- shion.

15

Nur- ses teach- their chil- dren so a-Looks a- squint on his dis- course, and Gud- geons on- ly who can be caught with But a- las, who less could do, that bout smiles when the time of wean- ing.

such found poor so tricks good oc- plain- eth.
found so good oc- ca- son.
sion?