

Shows and nightly revels

Thomas Campion

Shows and night- ly re- vels, signs of joy and peace, fill roy- al

5

Bri- tain's court, while cru- el war- fare off doth rage, for ev- er hence ex- il- ed.

10

Fair and prince- ly bran- ches with strong arms in- crease from that deep-

15

root- ed tree whose sa- cred strength and glo- ry for- eign ma- lice hath be- guil- ed.

20

Our di- vi- ded king- doms now in friend- ly kin- dred meet, and old de- bate to love and kind- ness turns our pow'r with dou- ble force u- nit- ing. Tru- ly re- con-

25

30 cil- ed grief ap- pears at last more sweet both to our selves and faith- ful friends our un- der- min- ing foes af- fright- ing.

35