

Come ashore, merry mates

John Coprario

Came a- shore, come mer- ry mates, with your nim- ble Haste a- board, haste now a- way: Hy- men frowns at a

5

heels and pates; sum- mon ev- v'ry man his your de- lay. Hy- men doth long nights af-

a

10

knight; e- nough hon- our'd is this night. night.
fect; yield him then his due re- spect. spect.

1 2
a a

Now let your sea born god- dess come,
The sea- born god- dess straight will come,

a

15

quench these lights and make all dumb; some sleep, o- thers
 quench these lights and make all dumb; some sleep o- thers

20

let her call, and so good night, good night to all, good she will call,

25

night, good night, good night, good night to all. Now all.
 The