

Farewell, too fair for my admiring

John Dowland

5

Cantus

Fare-well, too fair, too chaste, - but too, too cru- el;
Fare-well, too dear, and too, - too much de- sir- ed,

Bassus

10

Dis- cre- tion nev- er quench- ed fire with swords. Why - hast thou Un- less com- pas- sion dwelt more near thy heart. Love - by ne-

15

made my heart thine an- ger's fu- el, And now would kill glect (though con- stant) oft is tir- ed, And forc'd from bliss

20

25

- my pas- - sions with thy words? This - is proud beau- - ty's true a- na- to-
- un- will- - ing- ly to part.

30

35

my: If that se- cure, se- vere in se- cre- cy. Fare- well, fare- well.