

Disdain me still

John Dowland

5

Dis-dain me still, that I may ev-er love, For who his
As heat to life, so is de-sire-to love, And these once

10

Love en-joys - can love, can love no - more. The war - - once quench'd both life, - both life and love, and love are gone. Let not - - my art most fair, most - - fair: And still I'll - love and still I'll ev- er mourn, ev- - er mourn, Love sur- - - feits, love sur- feits

- love, I'll love, though still, though still - I must des- pair.
 - with re- ward, his nurse is scorn, - his nurse is scorn.