ther him a po- sy. sy. She straight her light green silk- en coats up tuck- ed And may for Mill, and thyme for Thyr- sis pluck- ed,

Which when she brought he clasp'd her by the mid- dle, And kiss'd her sweet, and kiss'd her sweet, but could not read her rid- dle. Ah, fool! Ah, fool! With that the nymph set up a laugh- ter And blush'd and ran and ran a- way, and ran and ran a- way, and ran and ran a- way, and ran and ran a- way; and he ran af- ter, and he ran af- ter, af- ter, and he ran af- ter, af- ter, and he ran af- ter, af- ter.
