

Adieu, fond love

Robert Johnson

5

A-dieu, fond love! Fare-well, you wanton pow'rs. I am free a-gain; Thou dull disease of blood and i-dle hours, Be-witch-ing pain, Fly to those fools, that sigh a-way their time! My no-blér love, to hea-ven climb, to hea-ven climb, And there be-hold beau-ty still young, That time can ne'er cor-rupt, nor death destroy; Im-mor-tal sweet-ness by fair an-gels sung, And hon-our'd with th'e-ter-ni-ty of joy!

There lives my thoughts there lives my thoughts. Thi-ther my hopes as-pire; Fond love declines, This heav'n-ly love, this heav'n-ly love, this heav'n-ly love grows high-er.