

O, let us howl

Robert Johnson

5

Oh, let us howl some hea- vy note, Some dead- ly dog- ged howl,

6

10

Sound- ing as from the threat- 'ning throat Of beasts, and 15

fat- al fowl. As ra- vens, screech- owls, bulls and bears, 20

We'll bell and bawl our parts, Till irk- some noise hath cloy'd our ears, And cor-ro-siv'd our hearts. At last when- as our all

25

30

35

quire wants breath, Our bo-dies be- ing blest, We'll sing like swans,

a 40

we'll sing like swans, to wel- come death, And die

a

in love and rest.

all