

When Laura smiles

Philip Rosseter

When Lau- ra smiles, - - - her sight re - The spi- rits that - re- main, the spi- rits Di- an- a's eyes - - - are not a-Love hath no fire - - - but what he 5 vives - - - both night and day; The earth and that - re- main in flee- ting air Af- fect for dor- - - ned with great- er power Than Lau- ra's, steals - - - from her bright eyes. Time hath no

10

hea- - ven views with de- light - - - her wan- ton pas- - time to - en- twine - - - her tress- ed when - - she lifts a- while - - - for sport to pow- - er but that which in - - - her plea- sure play; And her speech with ev - er flow - ing mus - ic hair; The birds think sweet - Au - ro - ra, Mor - ning's lure. But when she her eyes en - clos - eth, blind - ness lies. For she with her di - vine beau - ties all the 20

15

doth re - pair The cru - el wounds of sor - row queen, doth shine From her bright sphere when Lau - ra doth ap - pear The chief - est grace of beau - ty world sub - dues, And fills with hea - v'nly spi -

25

and - un - tamed des - pair.
 shows - her looks di - vine.
 sweet - ly seat - ed there.
 - rits my - hum - ble muse.