The musical score is written for a lute, specifically a six-course instrument. It consists of a single melodic line. The notation includes rhythmic flags, accidentals, and fingering letters (a, b, r). Measure numbers 5, 10, 15, 20, 25, and 30 are indicated in boxes. The score ends with a C-clef and a repeat sign.

1) Impossible a on 4th course deleted by editor

2) Note one course higher in orig., which is impossible. Same in next bar.
