

6. Why canst thou not?

John Danyel

Why canst thou not as o- thers do: look on me with un- wound- ing eyes,
 Why should mine eyes see more in you, than they can see in all the rest?

and yet look sweet, but yet not so, smile, but not in my kil- ling wise?
 For I can others' beau- ties view and not find my heart op- pres'd.

Arm not thy gra- ces to con- found; on- ly look, on- ly look, on- ly O be as o- thers are to me, or let me be, let me be, let look but do not wound, on- ly look but do not me be more to thee, or let me be more to wound, on- ly look, on- ly look, on- ly look, on- ly look, but thee, or let me be, let me be, let me be, let me be

do not wound, on- ly look, but do not wound.
 more to thee, or let me be more to thee.
